

FIND AND WIN THE BEST PROJECTS FOR YOUR COMPANY

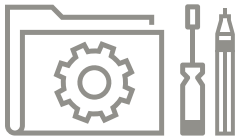

Successful bidding is not about submitting the most bids. It's about submitting better bids on the right projects.

The right jobs.

- Target the best projects quickly using saved searches specific to your needs
- Know who the key players are and how to reach them

The right tools.

- Receive email alerts on updates and important dates for your tracked projects
- Get access and download project plans, specifications and addendums for 87% of bidding projects at least 14 days before bid date.

The right network.

- Expand your network with access to ConstructConnect's database of 1.1 million industry professionals.

Plus, access everything—wherever you are, whenever you want—with our mobile-friendly, cloud-based platform. Join thousands of contractors who have discovered the simple way to find, bid and win more projects.
